The Planet's Loyalty Programme

Retailers

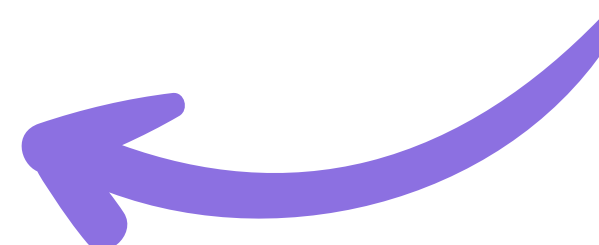

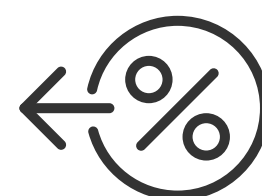

- IMPT's offline strategy is all about bringing IMPT, the Planets Loyalty Program, to the world. We want every city and region on the planet to have IMPT stores available, so people can offset carbon credits for every time they shop.
- For a retailer to sign-up, they have to fill up an online form, adding a credit card, download an app and allow bar-code receipt payments to be usable.
- Discounts associated with retailers are defined by the retailer, the country manager, global partner manager and city/regional manager so that discounts are manageable, sustainable and allow our retail community to thrive.
- Retailers who bring in other retailers will benefit in terms of a member get member referral solution. This will be in the form of a fiat/crypto payment for each extra retailer, that one of our existing retailers, brings to the IMPT platform.

How it works

Retailers can download the app

The commission is agreed by sector and IMPT policies

Every month, IMPT
invoices the stores

Customer's rewards methods

- App to App connectivity
- Scan the receipt

1. App to App connectivity

Retailers download the IMPT app

A customer that shops within the retailer store can ask the retailer to scan their code after the payment to get their carbon credit rewards

The retailer will then add the purchase amount and a quick scan will take place between the phones

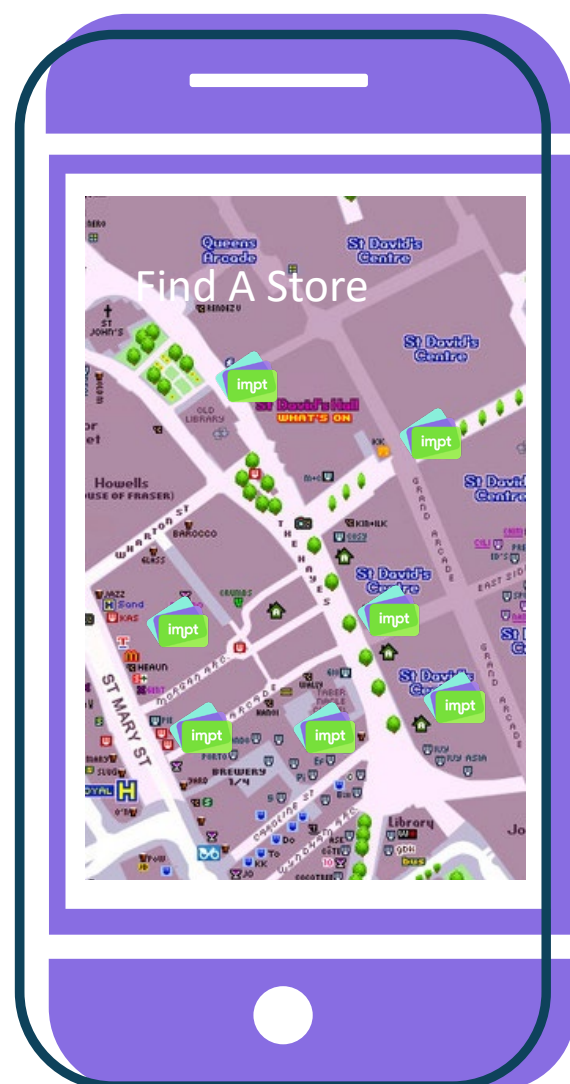

If the retailers has a returns policy, the reward will be subject of the return policy

The commissions will be reflected in the customer's app as pending until the payment from the retailer is made

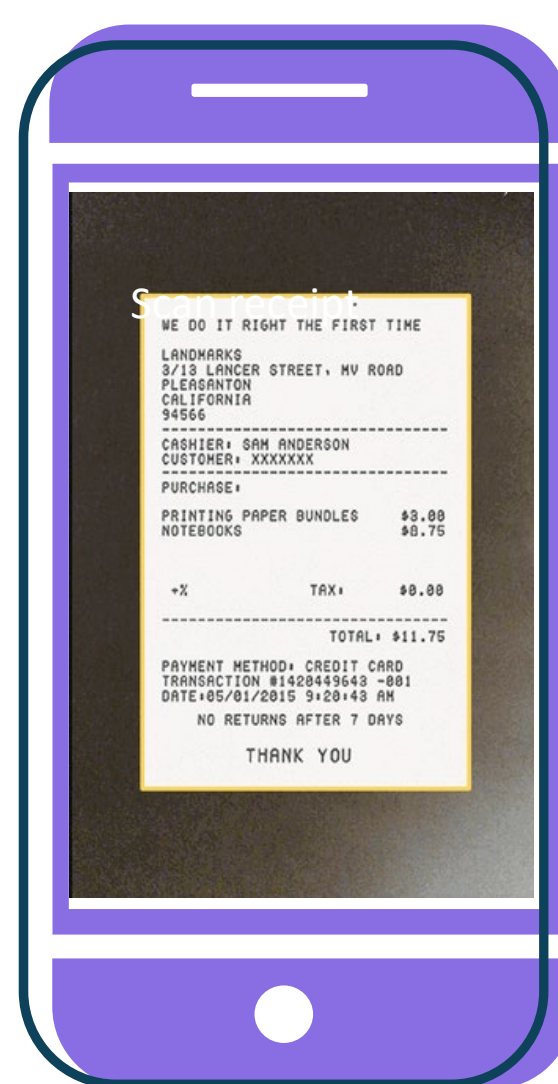

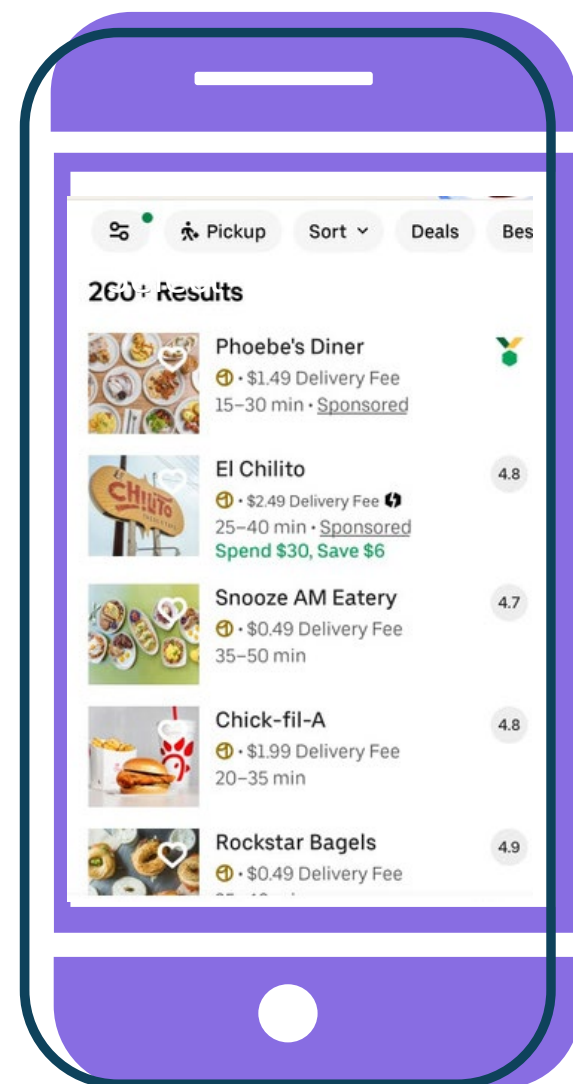

The transaction will be reflected in the retailers account as will all transactions and all retailers will have access to a dashboard to monitor and validate all rewards

2. Scan the receipt

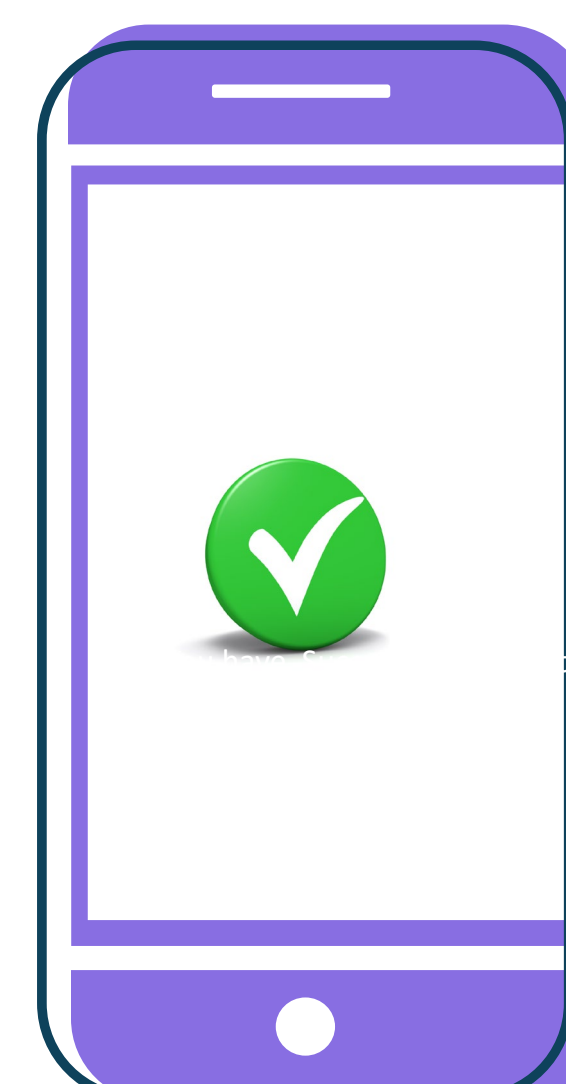

Customer finds a local store that uses
The Planet's Loyalty Programme

Users scans the receipt

User verifies that the information is correct

Once the user submits the receipt the retailer can validate the information in the retailer dashboard.

2. Scan the receipt
