

Practice what we preach

IMPT is a fully carbon neutral company - Any carbon we produce we offset fully with our own trusted project partners

Keep it simple

Our digital platforms are designed to be simple and easy to use, ensuring the purchase of carbon credits is freely accessible to the widest community possible

Due diligence

All of our carbon offsetting project partners are internationally certified. In addition, they undergo rigorous compliance vetting to ensure our rigorous standards are met

Your security is imperative

By designing our solution on the blockchain you benefit from its proven security and transparency

Diversity makes us great

As both an employer and partner we make it our business to work with a diverse pool of talent, both culturally and geographically
